The City of Indianapolis and its residents

On behalf of CityByApp™ Inc. and the HeroByApp™ Community Heroes Program, it is our honor to recognize the City of Indianapolis as the host city of Indiana's inaugural Founding 50 recognition.

It was here, in Indianapolis, that Sergeant Major Mary L. Aurtrey, U.S. Army (Retired), Indiana's inaugural community Hero, was honored. Because of her recognition, no-cost, sponsor-funded verified civic access is opened, and every agency, nonprofit, licensed business, and resident of Indianapolis becomes eligible to voluntarily claim a verified presence and publish trusted local information for the community. Participation is entirely voluntary.

This honor is preserved as a lasting, verifiable digital record of Mary's legacy, and the City of Indianapolis — the place where that legacy was first celebrated — is part of it.

This recognition is nonpartisan and honors service and community impact only. It implies no endorsement of any kind. We are grateful to mark this moment with the people of Indianapolis.

With respect and gratitude,

Jerome Mark Mikulich
